THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:

Sometimes we worry too much about the outcome of things that we don't stop and realize that God has already taken care of it.

Bring peace to family feuds

Keeping peace in a family isn't easy. But imagine the difficulty when relatives get into a fight and have armies at their command. Such was the problem Saint Elizabeth faced 670 years ago when war broke out between her son, the king of Portugal, and her grandson, the king of Castille. But, because of Elizabeth's love of peace and the spiritual power she wielded, all it took was news of her arrival on the scene for the two combatants to settle their differences. You have this same spiritual power to draw on. Simply enlist the aide of the Prince of Peace to calm the winds of war and still the sea of conflict stirring within yourself. That is the best place to start. There's a good chance the rest of the family will follow your lead.

Our Saint Vincent de Paul Society, here at Our Lady of Fatima is asking for non-perishable foods as well as toiletry items to be dropped off in our Red Container in the front entrance of the Church.

This past week we dropped off non-perishable food and toiletry items to the Sister Rose House in New Bedford and they were very grateful for the assistance. What Sister Rose House is unable to use in the kitchen is put on a table to help those in need to freely take.

You'll have an opportunity to explore the transitions that define our past, present, and future. Take time away to reflect with others and on your own and listen to the experiences of a young adult team as you prepare to transition from high school and home life to living on your own.

Embark is open to any first year (resident or commuter) student attending any university. There is no charge to attend. Registration space, however, is limited, so register today at
